DIOCESAN OFFICE

The office will CLOSE FOR BUSINESS at 5pm on TUESDAY 19 DECEMBER THIS YEAR. If you need any last minute items of printing, etc. could you possibly make sure we have them by the Monday, so we can get them turned around ready for the Tuesday?

Thank you to all the clergy, vestries and members of the congregations around our diocese for your forbearance during a difficult time here, and for all your hard work during 2017. It has been truly heartening to get the messages we have been sent, not only recently, but throughout the year, and to know that we are of some help to those of you who occupy the stalls and pews!

With our very best wishes for a Blessed Christmas.

From all of us at 21a.....

News from Bishops Enabler of Mission

Are you or your church interested in Art? A new resource has just been published online by St Martin's in the Fields Church and the National Gallery in London using fine art paintings to explore bible stories and faith. It is a free downloadable course of 22 sessions available here: <https://www.stmartin-in-the-fields.org/life-st-martins/discipleship/inspired-to-follow/>

Christmas is nearly here bringing a fabulous opportunity to proclaim the Good News. I am sure you may have some visitors to your services, or more people using your building who don't know much about the real meaning of Christmas. How about having some specific literature available, either to give them or at the back of church to take away. Here are some great, low cost options:

Scottish Bible Society publish a special edition of the gospel of Luke at 25p per copy:

<https://scottishbiblesociety.org/our-work/gods-gift-the-christmas-gospel/>

HOPE have a FREE glossy magazine (donation welcome but order soon):

<https://www.hopetogether.org.uk/Groups/281125/Christmas.aspx>

The Good Book Company also have some great resources:

<https://www.thegoodbook.co.uk/christian-living/christmas/>

CPO have a whole range of products including some great things for children:

<https://www.cpo.org.uk/catalogue.aspx?cat=2605>

And also for children have a look at Scripture Union material:

<https://content.scriptureunion.org.uk/christmas>

Meanwhile Advent is upon us, so have you thought of pointing people to some online resources to help us all reflect, prepare and pray during this season. Here are links to some different online advent calendars/resources:

CAFOD - <https://cafod.org.uk/Pray/Advent-Calendar>

Loyola Press - <https://www.loyolapress.com/our-catholic-faith/liturgical-year/advent/calendars/advent-calendar-for-adults>

Bustedhalo - <https://advent.bustedhalo.com/>

Beyond Church (Open daily an actual beach hut on Brighton beach):

Sunday

A date for the diary: REFRESH! is a training event for School leaders, to be held on 17 February 2018 at The Church of the Good Shepherd, Murrayfield, 2-5pm. Contact Claire Benton-Evans for further details at youthandchildren@dioceseofedinburgh.org

TREASURERS QUOTA & PAYROLL

Following the sudden death of Nigel Cook, we are in the process of re-arranging many of the tasks he undertook. One of these was the Direct Debits for quota and payroll. We now have new arrangements in place so any Direct Debits due will just be a little late this month. Apologies if that causes any problems for you.

HMRC EMPLOYMENT ALLOWANCE

We were delighted to get the news from the General Synod Office that the lawyers acting on behalf of the Province have communicated HMRC's acceptance that the Allowance IS applicable to all charges individually, and can be legitimately claimed. Any charges not making a claim at present should contact their payroll provider or HMRC direct:

WEEKLY COMMUNICATIONS SURGERY

Come along to the Diocesan Office, bring your laptop or your newsletter, or whatever other communication challenges you have, and we'll sit down with a cup of tea and figure it out. Surgery runs 2-4pm, every Monday until the end of the year.

This service is in addition to the current support provision and is intended to make it easier and more pleasant to deal with complex or technical challenges by talking face to face. You can, of course, still contact the Communications Coordinator outwith these times, and she will do her best to help.

CHANGES & APPOINTMENTS

The Revd Canon Anne Dyer

Rector of Haddington – to be Bishop of the Diocese of Aberdeen & Orkney (date tbc)

The Revd Mary Pat Lennard died on 25th November. Her funeral is on Thursday 21 December at 10.30 AM at St Mary's Church in Grangemouth. Those clergy who knew her may wish to attend the funeral, but the burial afterwards will be private to the family.

REQUESTS

PRIEST SEEKS ROOM IN EDINBURGH

I am a single priest currently serving in Newcastle Diocese, coming to Edinburgh in September 2018 for two years' postgraduate study at New College. I am seeking a room to rent in or within travelling distance of the city centre from September 2018 for a term or longer. If you could help, please contact me: sarahmiller1413@gmail.com

I shall be in South India from January 18th-May 25th 2018 doing voluntary teaching work through USPG.

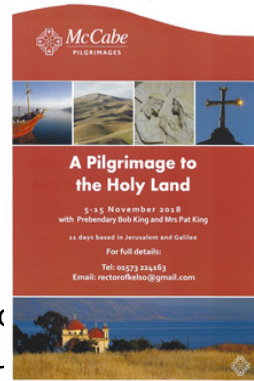

[Note – Sarah has met with Bishop John and we hope that she will be able to join our diocese as a non-stipendiary Member of Clergy, when she returns to the UK]

Dear Friends

Pat and I have decided that we would like to lead a Pilgrimage to the Holy Land November to 15th November 2018 and would like to invite you to join us

We are pilgrims on a journey, fellow travellers on the road;
we are here to help each other walk the mile and bear the load

The Holy Land is a very special place with incredible history and spirituality. Bob has lead two trips before and Pat and he have jointly taken a party as well which means that we have experience of facilitating this very special type of holiday.

When we are in the Holy Land we will have a full-time guide with us and ours will be a friend we have used before, Nasser, a Christian from Palestine, who has a deep knowledge not only of the history but also the present day situation.

This will be a pilgrimage, with prayer, Eucharist's and a lot of fun, basically it will be conducted in the "Bob and Pat" style of care, attention to detail, prayer, reflection and a lot of fun and laughter.

We will leave from Kelso and travel by coach to Manchester. I have chosen Manchester to try and save the time and expense of travelling through Heathrow and although the return flight time is not ideal I believe that this is the best option for us to use. Nearer the time we will be able to give you an exact price for the cost of bus travel to and from the airport.

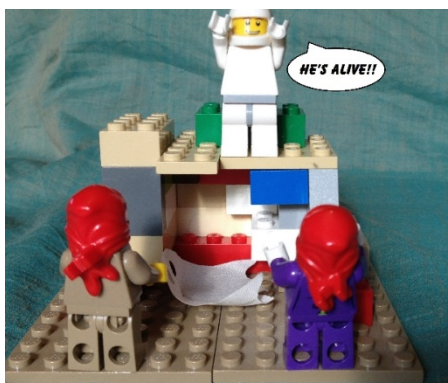

The hotels that we use are very good, not luxury but of a high standard and as you will see from the attached brochure all meals, tips etc. are included in the price of the trip.

Obviously, safety is at the very top of our agenda and in conjunction with our Tour Operator, McCabe Travel, we will endeavour to maintain our planned itinerary but should anything arise we will substitute different places to visit.

If you would like to find out more please contact either of us and we will be delighted to chat.

With our love

Pat and Bob King

Visit to Edinburgh by

Dr Rowan Williams

104th Archbishop of Canterbury

An Evening with Dr Rowan Williams

Dr Rowan Williams is acknowledged internationally as an outstanding theological writer, scholar and teacher. He has been involved in many theological, ecumenical and educational commissions. He has written extensively across a very wide range of related fields of professional study - philosophy, theology (especially early and patristic Christianity), spirituality and religious aesthetics. He has also written throughout his career on moral, ethical and social topics and, since becoming archbishop, he turned his attention increasingly on contemporary cultural and interfaith issues.

In conversation with Professor Mona Siddiqui, Professor of Islamic and Interreligious Studies, Assistant Principal Religion and Society, Dean International, Middle East, the University of Edinburgh.

Who Has Your Back?

Spirituality and Work Reflection Group

Now entering its third block, this group is for anyone looking for support, resourcing or new inspiration at work. Group continuing with 3 to 6 people – space for new folk to join.

What gets you out of bed in the morning?
What keeps you going at work? What is draining and what's going well? Who or What 'has your back'?

Using a mixture of conversation and creative approaches here is an opportunity to re-energise vision for work, find help with tricky encounters and refresh courage and compassion towards both yourself and those with whom you work. Open to people from a variety of backgrounds e.g. NHS/social workers, teachers, alternative therapists, charity workers, clergy, volunteers, anyone in 'people roles' or organisations. We will create the space between us using images, objects, action and 'soulful seeing' to go in search of focus, support, and re-equipping.

Friday evenings 7.15 - 9.15pm Next block: 15 December, 12 January, 9 February, 16 March

St Philip's Church, Canonmills, Edinburgh

£30 per session with a commitment across these 4 dates, then choice to leave and stay for next block of four.

Facilitated by Elizabeth White, a spiritual director, trainer and pastoral supervisor who offers individual sessions and group workshops www.reflectivespaces.org.uk/groupwork
