Advent and Christmas 2016

A Message from Bishop John

There is loads happening in churches near you this Advent, offering opportunities to rediscover the joy and the challenge of the Christmas story. The shepherds of the Christmas story didn't just talk of going to see the newborn Jesus, they actually went. God's action spurred them to action, and they discovered something amazing as a result.

Christmas is full of words and good intentions, but its true wonder is found when the Christ child inspires us to go, to see and to respond in acts of loving service. I know how incredibly busy things are at this time of year and I'd like to say thank you for working so hard, for volunteering so much, for sharing and acting out God's love, now and throughout the year. I'll be praying for you all throughout Advent and the Christmas period.

Have a wonderfully blessed Christmas, and may you each be a blessing to others.

+John

Light Up A Life to Remember a Loved One this Christmas

This year's Light Up A Life event will take place on Monday 12 December in Charlotte Square Gardens, Edinburgh.
The Gardens will be open from 5.30pm with refreshments available.
Please wrap up warm!

This is followed by a Service of Remembrance at 7pm in St John's Church, Princes Street

St Columba's Hospice has launched its annual Light Up A Life appeal, where you can dedicate a light on the Tree of Remembrance in honour of someone you have loved and lost.

Christmas at the Hospice starts with our annual Light Up A Life appeal, when we ask you to dedicate a light on our Tree of Remembrance in memory of someone you have loved.

We are incredibly grateful to everyone who supports our Light Up A Life appeal, which enables us to provide care and support to the Hospice's patients and their families throughout the festive period.

Our Tree of Remembrance stands proud in Edinburgh's Charlotte Square Gardens, covered in lights dedicated in memory of those we have loved and lost. We welcome you to join us at the lighting ceremony and see your lights shine bright. There's something really special about seeing the lights shining out against the dark sky and being together remembering the people they represent.

Please Light Up A Life this year and support us as we continue to support our local community.
