Immersive and experiential Fresh Expressions Event, Near Penrith, 10th November

I am planning to go to this inspiring day conference experiencing and learning about new forms of mission and would love to have some company. With an imaginative programme and some great contributors this really seems worth the journey and £30 cost. Not a conference, more an interactive event. There is also an optional evening "Pioneer Shindig" (£18 extra) and/or a morning out on the hills on 11th to experience the Mountain Pilgrims mission initiative. More details here, and book tickets here. If you would like a lift, please do Email Annie.

DIOCESAN EVENT 8th December 7pm-6am

Do ever walk past a homeless person and want to help? Have you ever wondered what sleeping rough is like? Why not join Bishop John, others from the diocese and about 8,000 people sleeping out in Princes Street Gardens on 8th December.

Organise a group from your church or come as an individual to support the charity Social Bite and their campaign to end homelessness. Sign up on their website here and raise at least £100 sponsor money (of which £50 for registration). The Diocesan Group will gather at 7pm for a Eucharist at St John's Princes Street and then go together into the gardens about 7.45pm. If you want to come along later look out for our huge Diocesan flag and join us for Night Prayer 11pm led by Bishop John. For more details go to the Social Bite Website or email Annie, and for a poster for your church or newsletter is available on our website here (and follows in this Communicant).

Weekend of Invitation Roadshow, 25th October

Needing inspiration on how to make your church more welcoming? Ever wondered how to encourage and equip church members to invite their friends and colleagues to church? Come to a roadshow on Thursday 25th October, 7-9.30pm at Palmerston Place Church to hear Michael Harvey unpack these challenges to enable your church to grow. A free event but you must register for a ticket on eventbrite here.

Hope in the Rural Church Report

ACTS have published a fascinating insight into rural church growth in Scotland, reflecting on the Church Census information and Steve Aisthorpe's research on Churchless Christians, published in his book, The Invisible Church. There are a few hard copies of the whole 52 page report in the Diocesan office available from Annie, email her, or download/read the document on the ACTS website here.

We now have a list of resources for Advent on our website here. Check it out for ideas for yourself, for recommendations and for children and families.

Christmas Ideas and Resources

We are compiling a list of CHRISTMAS resources of ideas for services, give away gifts, Youtube clips, creative writing, crafts etc. If there are things you have used or found effective in the past, we would love to hear from you to share that with others around the diocese. Email Annie with your ideas and look out for the resources list and website page coming soon.

Press release – 25 September 2018

EDINBURGH CITY MISSION AND CHURCHES ACROSS EDINBURGH JOIN FORCES TO OFFER CAP LIFE SKILLS

Edinburgh City Mission and Christians Against Poverty are pleased to announce a new partnership to deliver the CAP Life Skills course. This initiative builds on the success of the course that was pioneered by Mustard Seed Edinburgh earlier this year and will be run at four locations across Edinburgh this autumn. An official launch event is being held at 7pm on Sunday 21st October at Community Church Edinburgh, 41a South Clerk Street, EH8 9NZ to which all are welcome.

Duncan Cuthill, chief executive of Edinburgh City Mission, said "We have worked for many years with our partner churches to alleviate food poverty across the city. Our partnership with CAP builds on this work as it expands the support that we give to churches in bringing hope to the people in their communities".

CAP Life Skills is an eight-week course that gives people the confidence and decision-making skills to live well, look after themselves and feel positive, even on a low income. If money is a source of stress, these free sessions run at a local church in your area might be an answer to your prayers. The course will run at the following locations:

Central Church 2 West Tollcross, Edinburgh, EH3 9BP	Every Thursday, 25 Oct – 13 Dec	6.30pm-8.30pm
Community Church Edinburgh 41A South Clerk St, Edinburgh, EH8 9NZ	Every Wednesday, 24 Oct – 12 Dec	2.00pm-4.00pm
Granton Parish Church, West Hall 55 Boswall Pkwy, Edinburgh, EH5 2DA	Every Thursday, 25 Oct – 13 Dec	12.00pm-2.00pm
Mustard Seed Edinburgh 170 Easter Road, Edinburgh, EH7 5QE	Every Friday, 19 Oct – 7 Dec	1.00pm-3.00pm

Mark Harris, Life Skills Centre Manager at Mustard Seed Edinburgh said: "It's a series of lovely, relaxed sessions. We'll be looking at lifting the pressure to spend and sharing some great practical tips to help us take control of our money and make it go further. We'll also be doing a big section on making good food so we can help our families stay healthy on a budget. It will be some of those key things you wished they had taught you at school, but didn't."

Christians Against Poverty is a charity that gives free help to everyone regardless of age, gender, faith or background. Started 20 years ago, it first offered debt counselling and now offers a range of help to tens of thousands of people in hardship across the UK every year.

Daring to See God Now, York Courses' 2019 Lent Course. Bishop Nick Baines' text forms a very soigné study on aspects of Mark's Gospel, and the accompanying CD/Digital Download is a lively take on +Nick's theme by Professor Keith Ward, previous Methodist Vice-President Rachel Lampard and me + David - covering at the last minute when the original contributor took ill!

Keith Ward is refreshingly honest, seasoned with brilliant and original insights. Rachel Lampard is very rooted with wonderful examples of the church in action. I catch the style of my sermon on Aberfan (attached) which I was privileged to preach before the College of Bishops in Oxford in September 2016 – about which you and so many others were very kind. Each of the five sessions ends with a very grounded meditation by Roman Catholic journalist and poet, Cathy Galvin.

One of the unique advantages of York Courses is that you just plug in and play and the House Group effectively runs itself. In my 21 years as a parish priest, with limited resources to draw from for courses, and limited time to write original stuff, I found York Courses a God-send. Professor Keith Ward himself feels overjoyed to see the C of E taking a good educational lead through York Courses. I attach a flyer for the both the forthcoming Advent and Lent courses - if you would like a complimentary set of course materials (a 'Taster Pack'), please email Carrie Geddes at carrie@yorkcourses.co.uk who would be delighted to help.

I would be immensely grateful if you could commend Daring to See God Now to the parishes in your care, with further details available at www.yorkcourses.co.uk

The Listening Service

- operates at Edinburgh Sheriff Court, Chambers St, on weekdays and some Court Saturdays
- provides support to any court user
- helps signpost people who are unfamiliar with the court environment
- relies on volunteers who are trained and supported to carry out this role

Are you

- non-judgemental
- a good listener
- willing to talk to people experiencing stress and anxiety

Can you

- make a regular commitment to a 3 to 4 hour shift twice a month

Music by Andrew Lloyd Webber

The Edinburgh Gilbert & Sullivan Society is proud to present the world-famous Andrew Lloyd Webber and Tim Rice rock opera, Jesus Christ Superstar.

Loosely based on the Gospel account of the last days before his crucifixion, Jesus Christ Superstar examines the conflicts between Jesus and those around him through a fusion of 70's rock, gospel, and folk music, and innovative interpretive dance numbers. The musical also examines the relationship between Jesus and Judas Iscariot, and his relationship with Mary Magdalene as they contemplate their lives with Jesus, and the changes he has brought about within them.
