CAN WE USE YOUR SKILLS IN OUR COMMITTEES?

From time to time we have vacancies on our committees, and we would like to start a new initiative which is to maintain a list of those who have particular skills and experience in the areas we need and, when opportunities arise, to make contact and discuss how we might use them. Whilst the principal need is for committees, there are other occasions when we setup smaller short-term groups, to look at specific projects.

We are not necessarily looking for a long-term commitment, just an indication of interest at this stage. It may be that you have limited time available, but do have the skills/experience, and there are various ways we want to try and use those, without the need for attending regular meetings in Edinburgh. These are some of the areas in which we periodically need help:

FINANCE & MANAGEMENT

- Committee members – meeting 4 times a year, dealing with accounts, budgets etc.
- Wider financial reviews of both diocesan funds and the accounts of the congregations in the diocese
- Assist in supporting less-experienced Vestry Treasurers
- Financial policies

BUILDINGS

- Committee members – meeting at least 6 times a year, dealing with permissions for schemes of work and developments, grant applications and reviewing quinquennial reports
- Experience of church buildings, both maintenance and development/preservation
- Advice on residential properties (Rectories) and their management/upkeep
- Local site visits to look at individual schemes, from time to time, and produce a report for the committee to discuss

COMMUNICATIONS

- Advice on policies and practices
- Technical help for our Communications Coordinator

PERSONNEL

- Help with updating our policies (for office staff)
- Reviewing proposals for new posts

These areas are not exhaustive, and the central work of the diocese is always kept under review. If you think you have skills we might be able to use, not covered here, please do still get in touch.

In the first instance, send an email to Simon Filsell, Diocesan Administrator, at:

dioadmin@dioceseofedinburgh.org

He will then log the expressions of interest and pass them to those who are responsible for the appropriate area of work. Getting in touch does not commit you to any involvement. We would only hold your details for this specific purpose, and would only contact you twice a year to check that you were still happy for us to do this.

Thank you very much for considering this which, we hope, will enable us to provide an improved service across the entire diocese.

What is YOUR church doing for our Diocesan 10 Days of Prayer?

For the days between Ascension and Pentecost we are engaging in a special season of prayer and every person and congregation is invited to join in.

Get in touch with Annie Naish to tell us what you are planning – we would love to come and visit and join in with you in prayer. Email here or phone 07800 866 494. 14 Churches have signed up for a specific period of either 12 or 24 hours of prayer. Lots of ideas and resources are suggested on our website and the international initiative Thy Kingdom Come has lots of material too. More news on our website coming soon.

ALL CHURCHES

“An Indian church congregation is looking for a church in Edinburgh to hold their services. Presently they meet once a month on 2nd Sunday afternoons, for a Holy Communion service led by their priest who covers Scotland. However, due to the reported parking charges from April 2019 on Sundays in Edinburgh, they would like to engage with an Episcopalian church outside the city centre where car parking is available and not charged and the church has easy access to key roads, because some of their members come from Glasgow, Falkirk and Kirkcaldy.

Please contact robbie.j.thomas@me.com”

Meeting to discuss proposed changes to parking regulation on Sundays. The Edinburgh Council has proposals to introduce parking restrictions and charges on Sundays from 12.30 or earlier.

Two years ago the city centre churches came together to successfully campaign against the Council's proposals to introduce all day parking restrictions on a Sunday.

All the city centre churches are invited to a meeting at the Lauriston Hall at 2.30 on Sunday 12 May to discuss this issue and address what action needs to be taken by the churches working together.

Foundation Grants are available to churches of all Christian denominations around the United Kingdom towards work that addresses urgent maintenance, as identified as a priority in a recent Quinquennial Inspection Report or survey. The works should be stand-alone projects costing between £1,000 and £10,000 excluding VAT. Grants range from £500 to £3,000. The next deadline is 12 May 2019 for a decision in July.

In order to apply applicants should have 2 quotes for the work, 50% of funding in place, as well as permissions (e.g. List B consent, Faculty, Trustee approval or equivalent thereof), and be able to evidence the urgency for the work. Projects should be led, overseen and supervised by a suitably qualified architect or surveyor, with conservation accreditation if the building is listed. We cannot fund work retrospectively though work may commence after an application has been submitted to us. To date our grants have been used to fund small scale roof repairs, repointing, drainage, guttering etc. The grants can also be used to fund small investigate works and surveys. Applications should be made online via the relevant grant programme page here. Please be sure to read the guidance note before applying.

Please contact grants@nationalchurchstrust.org

A reminder too, in case of interest, of our other grant programmes (see also the attached leaflet and our website here) and ongoing initiatives.

- Gateway Grants are awards of £3,000 to £10,000 to support churches to develop high quality, well researched, sustainable projects through the diagnosis of issues affecting the church, by testing the viability of proposed solutions, and through developing plans up to RIBA stage 1, in advance of applying to a major church heritage funder. For the guidance notes (including the full eligibility criteria, scoring and grant conditions) and online application form, please visit www.nationalchurchestrust.org/gatewaygrants Next deadline 9 May 2019 for a decision in July.
- Cornerstone Grants are awards of £10,000 to £50,000 towards urgent and essential structural repairs, with an estimated cost of at least £100,000 (including VAT and fees) and/or the introduction of kitchens and toilets costing at least £30,000. For the guidance notes (including the full eligibility criteria, scoring and grant conditions) and online application form, please visit www.nationalchurchestrust.org/cornerstonegrants Next deadline 1 July 2019 for a decision in November.
- MaintenanceBooker www.maintenancebooker.org.uk Based on the principle that prevention is better than cure MaintenanceBooker can help churches and chapels avoid having to carry out major repairs to their buildings by making it easy to carry out regular maintenance. The service is available to churches, chapels and historic buildings across England and Wales and provides an online 'one stop shop' where churches and chapels can book accredited contractors for services including gutter clearance, tree maintenance, lightning protection system inspections and asbestos management services. Small grants are also available towards the costs of some services booked via the site. For more information, see here.
- ExploreChurches www.explorechurches.org Churches, chapels and meeting houses are literally 'treasure houses' of heritage, history and community. Through ExploreChurches the National Churches Trust aims to develop a high quality resource for visitors and churches alike. The potential for churches to attract visitors and for visits to be enjoyable and worthwhile is huge. The UK has a wonderful national collection of churches, chapels and meeting houses peppered across the countryside and nestling in our towns. Perhaps this is why visiting churches (both old and new) is one of the most popular pastimes in the country, and such sites also attract foreign visitors. We would like to include all churches, chapels and meeting houses that are open for visitors (even if this is only during specific hours or on certain days). All you need to do is complete our online form: <https://www.explorechurches.org/add-your-church>

SOUL CARE WORKSHOPS 2019-20

Four individual workshops for those who tend their own soul, or who help to care for others' spiritual wellbeing

Saturday Afternoons 1.30pm - 4pm at St Columba's by the Castle, Central Edinburgh

28 September 2019: The Masculine Soul

Can masculinity be both wild and sacred? In a post-Weinstein, 'me too' world, can poet Mary Oliver's soulful exhortation to "let the soft animal of your body love what it loves" truly apply to men? Nick Thorpe believes so. Here he offers an interactive workshop that seeks to go beyond the often-binary media narrative in search of the distinctive gifts and spiritual needs of men, and to explore how men and women might experience 'the masculine soul'. This event is open to all, and all genders are warmly welcome. With Nick Thorpe, an award-winning writer, coach and speaker on subjects ranging from risk-taking to male rites of passage. www.nickthorpe.co.uk

23 November 2019: Right Use of Power

When power is often misused to manipulate and control, how can we develop heart-filled, power-positive skills to bring restoration, goodness and change? We will use Webinar material from Psychotherapist Dr Cedar Barstow, to explore our personal and positional relationship to power; how our own experience as client, learner or directee can help build sensitivity and awareness to the use of power and influence in the roles we have for others. For all who offer soul care e.g. faith leaders, spiritual teachers, pastoral carers. With Elizabeth White, a spiritual director and pastoral supervisor who also coordinates a project exploring a national accreditation pathway for directors. www.reflectivespaces.org.uk/consultation

1 February 2020: The Dynamic Ignatian Exercises

Designed as an introduction to the dynamic of the Ignatian Spiritual Exercises, this event will include input, guided reflection and interactive 'stations' to open up an overview of the Exercises' scripture-based themes. It is for those who are simply curious, those who would like to revisit their experience of making the Exercises, and those who offer them to others and would like to practice some visual and creative ways into the material. Open to all, with a maximum of 18 participants - book early! Elizabeth White works with individuals and groups in Edinburgh and online. For several years she was involved in training others in Spiritual Conversation/Direction, and based her supervisory diploma project around the use of creative methods to teach the Ignatian guidelines. www.reflectivespaces.org.uk

25 April 2020: Exploring Spiritual Abuse

What is spiritual abuse? What are the key characteristics that lie behind this difficult label? And what impact does the experience of spiritual abuse have on people's lives? Through input from current research, small group discussion and plenary, this workshop will help 'soul care practitioners' to consider the definitions and implications of these questions for their work. Brief pointers may be given for accompanying those who have experienced abuse, but the main emphasis will be on what we need to be aware of as we hold safe, sacred space for others. This event is open to faith leaders, spiritual directors, therapists etc, particularly those working in 1:1 or small group settings. With Anne Solomon, an experienced spiritual director and supervisor working in Cheltenham, Gloucestershire. Also a Chartered Psychologist, she works and writes within the fruitful dialogue between spirituality and psychology. www.spiritual-life.co.uk

Booking:

Each session is £25 including tea, coffee, cake and fruit

These workshops are organised by Reflective Spaces www.reflectivespaces.org.uk
