MINISTERIAL DEVELOPMENT OFFICER

At the recent Mission & Ministry Committee meeting it was confirmed that The Revd Jane MacLaren will not be returning to her MDO role after an extended period of absence since contracting Covid back in March. She continues her work as Priest in Charge of St Philip's & St James' in Edinburgh. The Committee will now look at the options for recruitment.

ANNUAL FORMS

Vestry Secretaries and Rectors/Priests in Charge will be thrilled to learn that it is time for these forms to be submitted once more. In an effort to further ease the process and reduce the time, we have sent out the database printout sheet for each individual congregation to the respective Vestry Secretary in the post. That can either be returned "no changes" or an online form can be used to confirm any new details.

Please let us know if your Vestry Secretary has not received theirs.

The Rectors/Priests in Charge are being asked to complete the Congregational Statistics which, again, is via an online form: <https://edinburgh.anglican.org/diocesan-vestry-resources/resources-diocesan-office-forms/> This year, we have added the list of questions as a separate document, to help you get the numbers ready before you start!

For PVG Coordinators – we have just (in the last few days) received the 2022 PVG Checklist from the General Synod Office, so we will get the new questions revised in the Google Form and let you know when that's ready to go.

DIOCESAN OFFICE RESOURCES

COMMUNICATIONS

Have you got news or stories from your church you'd like to share? If so, our Communications Officer Miranda would love to hear from you! Please drop her a line at communications@dioceseofedinburgh.org to share your goings on.

We also have active Facebook, Twitter and Instagram accounts for all the activities in the Diocese. Please do not hesitate to send Miranda your best pictures of anything you would like to be shared on our social media accounts, whether it be a coffee morning, charity fundraiser, or a special service e.g. blessing of pets. We love getting your pictures and stories!

Advent is upon us! If you have any lovely Christmas-themed pictures of your church e.g. covered in snow, filled with candles, or the choir singing in a church decorated beautifully with holly and ivy, do send them to Miranda at communications@dioceseofedinburgh.org

If you've any news, stories or photos you'd like to share, please drop Miranda a line.

DIOCESAN ENVIRONMENT GROUP – WEBPAGE PUBLISHED

Our new Diocesan Environment Group will help support and encourage charges to work towards net zero carbon emissions by 2030. It reports to the Diocesan Standing Committee. The website of the Diocesan Environment Group is packed with ideas and resources to help the SEC become carbon neutral by 2030. It includes sections on Sharing Stories, Resources and Funding. The group is being led by Bethany Nelson, and you can contact her at bethany@psandgs.org.uk. The website can be found at <https://edinburgh.anglican.org/environment/>

The September newsletter can be found here: <https://edinburgh.anglican.org/wp-content/uploads/2022/09/DEG-Newsletter-Sept22.pdf>

Some of the resources available include:

- A toolkit by The Provincial Environment Group of The Scottish Episcopal Church to guide churches towards reaching net zero;
- The Energy Footprint Analyser to calculate your carbon emissions associated with heating and energy usage;
- A series of webinars by the Church of England.

You can also visit the Heat Hack scheme to help churches and other community buildings become more energy efficient: <https://heathack.org>

CHURCH BUILDINGS

From the HISTORIC RELIGIOUS BUILDINGS ALLIANCE (HRBA):

PRACTICAL SUGGESTIONS TO SAVE ENERGY AND MONEY

At the recent Church of England DAC Conference, a crowd-sourced note of practical suggestions was started to save parishes energy and money with the winter heating season fast upon us.

Free Community Activities with Bethany Christian Trust

Are you looking for warm, friendly spaces to help connect individuals from your church into the community, and a place for them to learn new skills, build confidence and meet new people?

This Autumn we'd love you to visit Bethany's free community activities happening across the city. Our varied programme includes computer drop-ins, lunchtime meals, recovery groups, conversational English groups, a toddler group, homework club and men's activity group, along with opportunities for walking, crafting, upcycling, creative writing and more.

Our activities are open to all from across the city, particularly for those who are lonely and socially isolated and potentially at risk of homelessness. Feedback from those attending has included:

- "I've got more structure in my life again and different groups to get along to in the week. It's taken me away from the things that were stressful and taking up my time."
- "It's built up my confidence and it pushes you to do something you wouldn't normally do. This place helps you build yourself back up."

For more information about our groups, please see the attached programmes or check out our new website for further details <https://bethanychristiantrust.com/get-help/>

We'd be grateful if you could also share our Autumn programmes with your congregations, and as always, we would love to hear from you about any ways you'd like to get involved with our work so please do get in touch!

Vacancy for the position of Convener of the Ethical Investment Advisory Group at the General Synod Office.

A convener for the reconstituted Ethical Investment Advisory Group (EIAG) is being sought, and any lay or ordained members of the SEC who are interested in the position are being encouraged to get in touch. An interest in Christian ethics and a basic knowledge of investments is essential. The ethics of investments are complex and the convener will have oversight of a group where differing views are held in tension. The group will work closely with Investment Committee and report to Standing Committee. The overarching aim will be to provide advice that is grounded in Christian theology, but practicable for Investment Committee to implement. It is anticipated that the group will meet twice a year either online or in person at the General Synod Office.

If you would like to register an interest in the Convenorship post or would like more information about it please contact Malcolm Bett (treasurer@scotland.anglican.org) or Daphne Audsley (DaphneA@scotland.anglican.org).

‘Anglican’ Christianity: A four-part series in Advent 2022

What does it mean to be an ‘Anglican’ Christian?

Over 40 Churches around the globe, consisting of no less than 85 million people, identify themselves as ‘Anglican’. Yet, Anglicans are divided among themselves in terms of doctrine and practice as demonstrated in the most recent Lambeth Conference (Summer 2022). This Series looks to four staples that Anglicans have classically identified as the bases of their belief and behaviour to highlight harmony rather than discord.

The Series will be offered on the Mondays of Advent 2022 at 7pm (GMT) in four 30-minute webinars, each of which will be posted on YouTube. The Series is meant to be a resource for Anglicans/Episcopalians to use creatively during the Season of Advent, for example as a refresher course for individuals or a conversation starter for church groups, with discussion questions at the end of each webinar.

1. Holy Scripture: ‘all things necessary to salvation’ and the rule of faith (Monday 28 November)
2. The Apostles’ and Nicene Creeds: symbols and statements of faith (Monday 5 December)
3. The Dominical Sacraments: Baptism and the Lord’s Supper (Monday 12 December)
4. The historic Episcopate: a universal and locally adopted means of unity (Monday 19 December)

Presenter: Revd Dr Michael Hull, Director of Studies and Tutor, Scottish Episcopal Institute, Edinburgh

Time: 7pm to 7.30pm (GMT) on Monday evenings in Advent 2022.

Registration is free. All are welcome. Registration is here.

at the Diocesan Office, 21a Grosvenor Crescent, from 3pm on Thursday 15 December. No need to RSVP; feel free to pop in for a mulled wine, mince pie and a chat as we celebrate the festive season.

Diocesan Advent Calendar

open your doors to Christ

This year's digital advent calendar will be themed around doors within the diocese, and how what's behind them can help prepare us for the coming of Christ. If there's a door in your church building or community you'd like to feature, please get in touch with Miranda, the Diocesan Communications Officer at communications@dioceseofedinburgh.org.

Warm Hub?

We know many churches are providing an open, warm space this winter to help with the ongoing cost of fuel crisis. If your church is able to provide a warm welcome, you may wish to register your space on www.warmwelcome.uk to help build a map of warm places throughout the country and ensure that as many as possible in our diocese and beyond can escape the cold.

Treasuring the Questions: Weekly Reflections Online

During Advent, we remember a time of strange arrivals, quiet miracles, God come to earth as an infant, and a lot of other things we don't really understand. This series is about journeying faithfully when we have more questions than answers, valuing the moments of light, learning to trust through the days of darkness. A new audio reflection is available each week to listen to in your own time. Additional reflective material includes writing, poetry, images and Scripture. Starts November 26th. Cost: £25, see website for details.

Trusting the Mystery: A Quiet Day for Advent

Saturday 26th November, 10.30-4pm, Christ Church Centre, Morningside

This Quiet Day is an invitation to pause and catch our breath, make space in our hearts for the gifts of this season. It offers a chance to ponder the things we might not understand, treasure the questions, watch for the light. The day will draw on a mixture of reflective approaches and creative material, with guided reflections and individual quiet time. Can stand alone or as introduction to the online series. Cost: £30 (£20 conc) includes lunch.

New Convener sought for Ethical Investment Advisory Group

A convener for the reconstituted Ethical Investment Advisory Group (EIAG) is being sought, and any lay or ordained members of the SEC who are interested in the position are being encouraged to get in touch.

In June this year General Synod adopted the revised Ethical Investment Policy Statement for the SEC Unit Trust Pool (UTP). Drafting this was the final part of the remit of the EIAG which had been set up to look at specific issues relating to the UTP arising from General Synod 2019.

Standing Committee has agreed that EIAG should be reconstituted with a new remit, and is now seeking someone to convene the new group for the next five years. An interest in Christian ethics and a basic knowledge of investments is essential. The ethics of investments are complex and the convener will have oversight of a group where differing views are held in tension. The group will work closely with Investment Committee and report to Standing Committee.

The focus of the new group will be to provide advice to Investment Committee on matters relating to ethical investment, principally to consider how the broad aspirations in the Ethical Investment Policy Statement and the associated Policy on the use of Pooled Funds (2019) can be put into practice for the UTP. It is envisaged that the work will include discussion of topics recommended and requested by Standing Committee and other committees, as well as responding to concerns raised by members of the SEC in relation to the implications of current events.

The overarching aim will be to provide advice that is grounded in Christian theology, but practicable for Investment Committee to implement.

It is anticipated that the group will meet twice a year either online or in person at the General Synod Office.

If you would like to register an interest in the Convenership post or would like more information about it please contact Malcolm Bett (treasurer@scotland.anglican.org) or Daphne Audsley (DaphneA@scotland.anglican.org).
